ALICE ITEMS.

By Black Eyed Lue and Blue Eyed Lue.

Dear Ed, and Correspondent
we will once more take our seats to write some items for the Cresset.

The Murr School closed Friday
there were a large crowd out speeches by the scholars and songs by the scholars also music by Mr. Tooley and speaking by O. A. Johnson teacher and Alfred Murr.

D. W. Bailey had the photo, of his house and part of the family taken Sunday.

Jane and Mable wanted to know when Flossy had saw H. I believe she saw him Friday yes A. B. says she knows the last time she saw L. M.

Well Black Eye and Blue Eye knows nothing about that buggy.
There is no use of telling them.

Mattie Crawford Mattie Rest and Myrtle Freeman started to Cabool Sunday accompanied by their teacher Mr. Johnson on purpose of starting to school this morning the 15th, we wish them much success.

Lillie Bailey visited at her brothers R. S. Baileys Thursday.

Well O. M. Flossy and her sister says that they are going over and go to the pie supper Friday night with you if they can get the chance.

Well Fannie that is to bad about you treating poor Red that away don't you think so Jim.

Oh Oma "Black Eyed Lue" has something to tell you B. S. said you took his eye a Friday I will tell you more about that when I see you.

No "Black and Blue Eye" "Flossy" says she knows nothing about Ev.
do you expect you do.

I guess some one can "Kraut and Pickles" up as I see no more of them but I'll bet they tasted sour didn't they.

Mr. Billie Brown near Houston died Wednesday and was buried Friday.

Girls Ada said you need not get cared that there was not any danger of Mrs. Bailey losing her girl believe you are the one that wants to be his dishwasher anyway Well I will close a bye bye to the Ed. and happy correspondents.

LITTLE PINEY CREEK ITEMS.

"By Red Rose"

Good morning kind Ed. and friendly correspondents I will try to scribble
a few items news is not very plentiful this week.

Cutting and hauling wood is the order of the day.

Mr. Vandiver visited relatives near Manes Sat. night and Sunday.

School closed at the Murr School house Friday Feb. 12 we hope that our teacher will be back with us next term of school for he is a good teacher and highly respected by all of the scholars.

Yes "Mary", I will be with you on correspondents day if possible if we have one.

O "Mary" you ought to be here to go with me to the pie supper at Gravel Pt. Friday night.

I hope you are having a good time you and Lulu did you go to meeting at Mr. Palms Sat. night.

Jess Reaves and Jim Brown called in at Mr. Vandivers to warm their feet Monday eve they was on their way from Houston look out girls.

As I am in a hurry I will quit and write more next time if this escapes the waste basket bye bye to all.

Last weeks items.

Good morning kind Ed. and friendly Correspondents.

As I have been absent for some time, I will try to write a few more items for the World's Cres-
set.

Guess that you will think that I am dead but I am not. I am still in the land of the living and enjoying life.

It is rather cool this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vandiver visited the sick at H. Coble's Sunday and report them no better.

John Harrel is on the sick list but was a little better evening.
Hope he will recover soon.

O Mary who was that girl that Bill was going to see? ask him if he has forgot the night that he sang all night. No I haven't forgot the time we went and had our fortunes told and part of my fortune was true and the other part too how about yours.

How is Lulu and Willie H.
getting along? He is sure pretty and hard to beat; Mary I hope you will have a good time. Did Lizzie cry when Berry started?
I'll bet she did I am sorry for her aint you Mary?

Prayer meeting at Pleasant Ridge was well attended.

Wonder why J. K. wasn't with M. B. Thursday night? What was the matter M. B. you will tell me when I see you won't you?

O Mary I saw Sunflower the other night she is just the same.

Where did you go Sunday
Mary not to have your fortune told I hope. I stayed at home all day and laughed all day and had a good time.

Mary you ought to come down and go with me to the pie supper at pleasant Ridge the 19 inst.

Bert Kelly and Robert Sutton were seen at Mr. Vandivers Sunday.

I think you are mistaken about that old sheep I don't think he bought it; it wasn't old enough for him.

I gness I had better quit for fear of taking up to much space.
Good bye to all.

DUNSMORE ITEMS.

"By Jane and Mabel."

Here we come again with a few items from this part.

"Jane and Mabel" would also like to have a correspondents day. I see "Flossy", "Mary", and "Blue and Black Eye", are in favor of it and hope we will hear from "Dewdrop", and the rest of them this week.

Lulu and Grace McGowen was the guests of Sarah Brown and Mrs. Ida Salsman last Wednesday evening.

Oh! "Flossy" we thought that flowered letter was just fine but we could not do as it said "Kraut cry-ed until her eyes were dim.

John Tyrrell bought 74 bu. of corn from Willie McGowen one day last week at 50 cts. a bu.

Riley Tate was the welcome guests of Will McGowen Thursday.

Ina Hoffarth Susie Smart Jim
Coble and Harve Murr visited at Mr Smarts Sunday.

Willie and Lulu McGowen Fred Horton and Jim Fry was the guests of John Booker and wife Sunday.

Well "Flossy" "Mabel and Jane" don't know that narrow path that leads to your house that is the reason those invitations does no good!

Well "Black and Blue Eye" have you heard from Ed since she went to Nevada? I bet George has don't you Sophia?

Cream in the pitcher,
And in the bowl beans;
Mr. John Woods,
And the daughter of John Greens,

Well Sapha "Jane" would like to see you fine come over and we will talk about going to school.

Mr. Cowley purchased 30 bu. of corn from Will McGowen one day last week.

John Salsman made a quick trip to Mtn. Grove Wednesday.

Several from this part attended the baptizing at Sales ford Sunday and Monday evening.

As ever the same old girls.

DUTCH TOWN ITEMS.

By Little John Henry.

Well as there was no news from Dutch town last week I thought I would come again: Giving Ed. and Correspondents a happy greeting.

We have had some cold snowy weather but nice at present.

Geo. Edwards failed to go to school at Mansfield he wanted to go but he said circumstances alters cases.

Mr. J. J. Garner is the celebrated horse trader of Dutch town;

John McGuire is still attending school at Norwood. I wish him the greatest of success.

Wonder what Susie will do about Riley going away.

Geo. Edwards has just returned home from his brothers, where he has spent about 3 weeks in the last month, hope he had a nice time.

G. W. Edwards has traded his farm for a small valley farm.

Dutch town is lively. Sunday school every Sunday. Prayer meeting every Sunday night.

Good day to Ed. and correspondents.
The rest rest of these items are so dim we cannot read them.

BRUSHY KNOB ITEMS.

By Sweetness

Hello Ed. and Correspondents
I will attempt once more to write a few items for the World's Cres-
set.

Elsie Barthallow spent Saturday night with Frankie Robertson.

Jessie Stubbs is spending this week with her grandma, Mrs.
Mitcham.

Elsie B how did you like your valentine, Ha! Ha!

There was quite a crowd out to Sunday School Sunday.

There will be church at Brushy Knob The 3rd, Sunday of this month by Brother Green.

Frankie Robertson spent Sunday and Sunday night with Elsie Barthallow.

Wonder why Author wasent at Sunday School Sunday, Mable was there.

There will be a Box Supper at Brushy Knob the 27th of Feb.
every body invited girls come and bring boxes.

Jesse Fry spent Sunday evening with Earnest Robertson.

Mrs. Halliburton is reported some better at this writing.

Ha! Ha! Wonder what made Kraut and Pickles change their names to Jane and Mable I guess J. F. told Jane that Kraut and Pickles were to sour for him.
How about it J. F.

Mrs. Micham is on the pny list this week but is beyter a this writing.

Frank Micham spent Sunday with home folks.

Wonder what Author D's hurry was Sunday evening? How about it Author did you think you could go faster by walking and leading your horse?

Wonder what time J. F. got home Sunday night.

Well I will close hoping to see these in print, good bye to the happy Correspondents,
